you Democrats encouragement from the Old World. From England Japan there is a wonderful growth of democracy, by which I mean the rule of the people has never been paralleled in history. It is less America, because we have a short distance to go. But there is urgent need here. I have in mind the election of senators. There is a doubt that in the past 20 years remedial legislation has been blocked or stopped by the highest tool predatory wealth placed in the senate.

The courts have too much power. No man would trust a judge with hundred dollars' interest in a case to try the case, yet the government permits trusts with millions interested, to try their own cases in the senate. The proposition is absurd.

Body in New York.

New York, Sept. 4.—The steamship Kaiser Wilhelm, bearing Oelrichs' body, arrived today with her color at half-mast. Charles Oelrichs and W. K. Vanderbilt met the vessel at quarantine. The body was taken aboard a tug and placed in a casket. The funeral will take place at 10 a. m. It will be private and from late residence.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 4.—Extraordinary preparations have been made for the reception and entertainment of Mr. William Jennings Bryan, who is expected to arrive here this afternoon from the East, and who will deliver an address at the Auditorium this evening. He will be welcomed upon his arrival by a large committee and will be entertained at dinner before the meeting in the evening. Many of the most prominent and influential Democrats of Chicago and the state in general will be present at the dinner and a large attendance is expected at the meeting in the evening. Shortly after meeting Mr. Bryan will continue his journey to Lincoln Nebraska, where he is due tomorrow and where he will be received with an elaborate home-coming ovation. According to the present plans of Mr. Bryan he will be in St. Louis on September 11, in Louisville, Ky., on September 12, and in Cincinnati on September 13. He does not expect to reach Kansas City until later. Luncheon was finished at 2 o'clock and Bryan spoke. He said: "I bring

ROBBED RANIER BANK

Cashier Bound and Gagged While Thieves Walk Off With $2400

A dispatch from Rainier, Or., last night says:

While the cashier lay bound hand and foot, gagged and tied to a table in a back room, two bandits leisurely looted the State Bank of Rainier in broad daylight yesterday afternoon. It was two hours before their unfortunate victim was able to free himself sufficiently to give the alarm, and in the meantime the robbers had made their escape, taking with them between $2000 and $2500 in gold coin.

P. W. Van Aucher, the cashier, was the only person in the bank when the robbery was committed, having come down, although it was a holiday, to work on his books. The robbers were evidently aware of this fact, and had laid their plans accordingly. Walking in through the unlocked front door, about 4 o'clock, unmasked and dressed like ordinary workmen, they attracted no attention from people on the street, and when Mr. Van Aucher turned to wait on them, he found himself completely at their mercy.

The bandits had closed the door behind them, and the shades on both doors and windows had been drawn. Seeing that it would be useless to resist, Mr. Van Aucher dumbly complied with the conventional command of "hands up" backed by the presence of a big six-shooter.

Looks Down Gun Barrel.

While the cashier looked down the barrel of the revolver thrust into his face through the paying teller's window, the gun-holder's companion stepped in behind the counter and deftly tied his hands with a stout cord. A moment later a contrivance of wood and cloth was thrust into Mr. Van Aucher's mouth, and then, with the assistance of his companion, who had lowered the gun and joined him behind the wicket, the burly thug lashed the helpless cashier's feet together, dragged him into the rear office of the bank and bound him securely to the long table in the center of the apartment.

Leaving the cashier to struggle as strenuously as he dared with the size of the big six-shooter still fresh in his memory, the robbers returned to the front room, locking the door of the rear office behind them, and proceeded to gather up their plunder.

The vault was open and the robbers had no trouble in getting access to the cash. Probably deciding that it would be unsafe to take the bills, which could be identified, and evidently not wishing to burden themselves with the silver, they swept the gold into a canvas bag and departed. Two $5 gold pieces in a tray in the safe were overlooked. No silver or currency were found missing.

First Section Completed.

Klamath Falls, Or., Sept. 4.—The first section, 1100 feet, of the government tunnel was completed Sunday and concrete work begun. There still remains 2220 feet of tunnel, which the contractors expect to complete before February 1, 1907, when the first unit of the vast irrigation system must be completed. The work on all the government works is progressing rapidly, and as the hay harvest is coming to an end many men are accepting work on the irrigation works.

Fire at Newberg.

The Newberg furniture factory was totally destroyed by fire yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock. When discovered the fire had gotten under such headway that the fire company could only save the adjoining residences. The fire is supposed to have started in the glue room. The loss to the company is $7000, and insurance $1000.

Fraternity Meet.

San Jose, Cal., Sept. 4.—The high court of the Ancient Order of Foresters convened here this morning. Delegates from all coast states, Nevada and Hawaii are present. The court was called to order by High Chief Ranger J. B. Sanford this morning.
